Conflicts of Interest:

Following the FSP Conflicts of Interest Management Policy, Charles Merrington Executive Financial Services places a high priority on its client's interests.

As conflicts of interest affecting clients could undermine the integrity and professionalism of our business, any instances will be identified as early as possible.

If conflict situations cannot be avoided, they will be managed equitably and in your best interest.

Detecting potential or recognized conflicts of interest that could compromise the interest of our clients and managing and limiting the impact of conflicts of interest, therefore, constitute an integral part of CMEFS duties and obligations.

Potential & actual conflicts of interest are inherent in any business & therefore it is not the aim of CMEFS to avoid all conflicts, but rather to take steps to identify & manage conflicts of interest to ensure that our clients are not unduly prejudiced.

As a result, CMEFS maintains an active Conflicts of Interest Management Policy.

Presently there are no known current conflicts.

Cash and Non-Cash Incentives:

We declare that CMEFS does not receive any cash or non-cash incentives from the various product suppliers with which we interact on your behalf.

We never have and we never will.

Complaints:

If any complaint is not resolved informally to your satisfaction within a reasonable time, it is then required under the FAIS Act that the complaint be submitted, in writing to the Internal Compliance Officer, namely Mr. Charles Merrington at charlesm@cmefs.co.za, in the first instance.

Should the matter not then be resolved to your satisfaction, you may refer the matter to the External Compliance Officer, namely Ms. Seshini Magan (fax: 0866 166 234).

Lastly, if the matter remains unresolved, you may refer the matter to the FAIS Ombud whose decision is final and binding on both parties.
